1.0 PREAMBLE

The Monitoring and Evaluation Policy of Atebubu College of Education (ATECOE) has been established to ensure a methodical and efficient assessment of the college's programmes, projects, and activities. This policy is rooted in the Education Act, 2008 (Act 778), providing a framework for monitoring and evaluating programmes and activities to ensure their quality and effectiveness. Additionally, the college acknowledges the Public Financial Management Act, 2016 (Act 921), which sets the legal framework for managing public funds in Ghana. ATECOE recognizes the crucial role of monitoring and evaluation in promoting accountability, learning, and continuous improvement. The primary objective of this policy is to establish a consistent framework for monitoring and evaluating all initiatives undertaken by the College. By advocating for a culture of data-driven decision-making, the policy aims to improve transparency, efficiency, and the overall impact of the college's efforts in accordance with the Financial Administration Act, 2003 (Act 654). It is designed to guide the systematic collection, analysis, and utilization of pertinent data to gauge progress, identify challenges, and inform strategic adjustments for optimal programme performance and delivery, aligning with the Internal Audit Agency Act, 2003 (Act 658). Through this policy, the College commits to adhering to best practices in monitoring and evaluation, promoting a results-oriented approach that aligns with the broader mission, vision, and values of the College.

In order to uphold transparency, fairness, and adherence to the values of Atebubu College of Education, the formulation of the Monitoring and Evaluation involved comprehensive consultations with the following sources:

- i. The College's prior Monitoring and Evaluation Policy was reviewed and considered during the development process.
- ii. Monitoring and Evaluation Policies of established universities such as UG, UCC, and KNUST were examined for insights and best practices.
- iii. The 1992 constitution of Ghana was referenced to ensure constitutional compliance.
- iv. The Colleges of Education Act 2012 (Act 847) was consulted to align the policy with the statutory framework.
- v. Harmonized Statutes for Colleges of Education were referenced for guidance.
- vi. The Harmonized Scheme of Service for Colleges of Education was considered for its relevance to the policy.
- vii. The Harmonized Conditions of Service for Colleges of Education were taken into account in shaping the Monitoring and Evaluation Policy.
